

Who ate the doughnuts?

Twelve doughnuts vanished at the Chanukah party! Read the suspects and the clues. Who did it?

A

Avi

"I was frying latkes the whole time. Ask anyone, I smell of oil!"

B

Bina

"I was on the sofa. I only opened one present, honest."

D

Dina

"I was by the menorah all evening, watching the candles."

M

Moishy

"I was out in the garden fetching more chairs."

CLUES

- The doughnuts went missing at 7:30.
- Whoever took them had icing sugar on their sleeve.
- Avi's sleeves were rolled up, and spotless.
- Bina never left the sofa, and three people saw her there.
- Moishy came in from the garden at 7:45 with cold hands.
- The menorah stands right next to the doughnut tray...
- Dina has a little white powder on her cuff.

I think it was...

Answer: Dina! She stood by the menorah, right next to the tray, and has icing sugar on her cuff.
